WELCOME TO FX
2008

Welcome to FX International 2008!

What a year this has been. I cannot even begin to describe it to you. Let me just say this: the best is yet to come! This year Majic Productions has teamed with Arata Expositions to form FX International, LLC., a convention force to be reckoned with! The combined talents of these entities will bring FX to the forefront of collectible tradeshow. We have positioned ourselves to be the fastest growing collectible event in the world.

That having been said, we will never jeopardize our position as a unique and ground-breaking event. On the contrary. FX will be adding new events and content while retaining our roots with the collecting public. FX is on the way to becoming the one and only pop culture event that represents every genre. No "cookie cutter" show here!

2009 is our 20th anniversary and we intend to celebrate that milestone... BIGTIME! We will be making some incredible announcements this year with regard to the future of "The Coolest Show on Earth!" We invite you to join us for these announcements on Sunday of the event.

I'd like to THANK...

This is normally where I list all of the people who have helped me throughout the year building FX.

This years' event is much bigger than I. There are so many people that have done so much for me and my company over the past 12 months that I can't possibly list them all here.

It would wind up being a three page list. Not to mention (with my brain in the state that it is right before the show) I would most likely miss someone near and dear.

I'd like to just say THANK YOU to everyone for all of your help and contributions. I could not have done this without all of my dear friends. You know who you are!

To my show staff. You are the best! You all go far, far beyond what is expected or even humanly possible. Thank you!

In the meantime, enjoy the show! We have added many new and innovative programs to the FX schedule of events. You won't want to miss the fun! We are the first to introduce an Urban Vinyl Artist JAM and this year we will crown our first FX Superhero!

FX continues our support of the community, with an emphasis on cancer-related charities. This cause has a special place in our hearts and we will continue to grow our involvement in the years to come.

Thank you for attending and being an FX supporter. We thank you for the last 19 years and look forward to many, many more years of fun! I'm sure you will enjoy yourselves at "The Coolest Show on Earth!"

Sincerely,

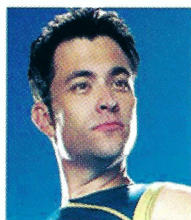

Michael Herz

STEVE CARDENAS

Steve is recognized for his role as 'Rocky DeSantos' on "Mighty Morphin' Power Rangers" from 1994-1997. Following the departure of the original Red Ranger, Steve won the role over thousands of other hopefuls from across the country during a nation-wide talent search. After leaving the show, he opened his own karate studio and is a 3rd degree black belt.

JASON DAVID FRANK SAT AND SUN

Jason David is most recognized for his role as 'Tommy Oliver' on "Mighty Morphin' Power Rangers". He has appeared as green, white, red and black rangers over the course of his 7 season appearance and is the longest appearing male Power Ranger. An accomplished 6th degree black belt, he was inducted into the World Karate Union Hall of Fame in 2003.

BROM

FX INTERNATIONAL GUEST of HONOR

Who is this creep?

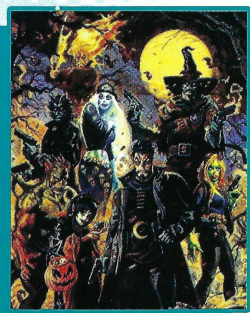

Born in the deep dark south in 1965, Brom, an Army brat, spent his entire youth on the move and unabashedly blames living in such places as Japan, Hawaii, Germany, and Alabama for all his afflictions. From his earliest memories Brom has been obsessed with the creation of the weird, the monstrous, and the beautiful.

At the age of twenty, Brom started working full-time as a commercial illustrator. Since that time Brom has been working feverishly for every facet of the genre, from novels (Michael Moorcock, Terry Brooks, R.A. Salvatore, E.R. Burroughs), Role-playing (TSR, White Wolf, WOTC), comics (DC, Chaos, Dark Horse), Games (Doom2, Heretic, Diablo2, World of Warcraft), and film (Tim Burton's Sleepy Hollow, Galaxy Quest, Ghosts of Mars, Scooby Doo, Van Helsing). Brom's powerful and haunting visions can be found in his two art books "Darkwerks" and "Offerings" and also his illustrated novel "the Plucker".

Most recently, Brom has turned his hand to writing a series of illustrated novels. His first novel "The Plucker" (a twisted children's book for adults) has over 100 paintings and received numerous nominations and was awarded a Chesley. His latest edition "The Devil's Rose" (a western set in Hell) is due out summer of 2007.

Brom is currently kept in a dank cellar somewhere in the drizzly Northwest. There he subsists on poison spiders, centipedes, and bad kung-fu flicks. When not eating bugs, he is ever writing, painting, and trying to reach a happy sing-along with the many demons dancing about in his head.

FEATURED GUESTS

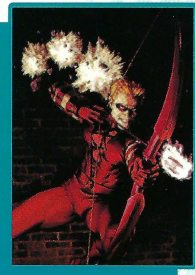

DAN BRERETON THE NOCTURNALS, BATMAN

Dan Brereton works in comics, animation and the film industry, but is possibly best known as the Eisner-nominated creator of NOCTURNALS, a series of supernatural/noir thrillers. You may also recognize Dan's name from his other projects, THRILLKILLER, THE PSYCHO, GIANTKILLER, JLA: SEVEN CASKETS, LEGENDS OF THE WORLD'S FINEST and a host of projects including BUFFY THE VAMPIRE SLAYER, TREEHOUSE OF HORROR, ULTIMATE SPIDER-MAN, SUPERMAN, VAMPIRELLA AND RED SONJA. Most recently Dan contributed to IMMORTAL IRON FIST ANNUAL #1. He lives in Northern California with his family, and is currently at work on THE SINISTER PATH, his next NOCTURNALS miniseries. Dan invites you to visit him on the internet at www.nocturnals.com

GENE HA TOP 10, THE AUTHORITY

Gene Ha is the multiple Eisner award winning artist of Alan Moore's Top 10 and The Forty-Niners. He has worked with various publishers including Marvel (Cyclops & Phoenix, X-Men Annual, Askani'son), Dark Horse (Oktane) and DC (JLA, Starman, Batman: Fortunate Son). He lives in the Midwest and thanks Floridians for bringing him down here so he can regain sensation in his toes.

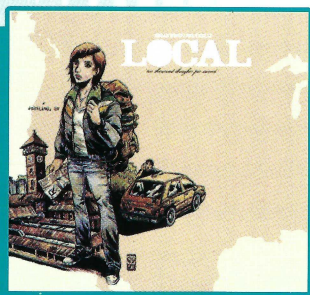

FREDDIE WILLIAMS II THE FLASH, ROBIN

In 2005 while attending the San Diego Comic Con, Freddie submitted a portfolio for the DC Talent Search. He was later selected as a fill in artist for Seven Soldiers: Mister Miracle. From there he became the monthly artist for Robin starting with issue #149, and has since moved to The Flash.

Freddie has also done issues and other work DC, Image, Palladium and Independent Comic companies including "52" #31 - Robin origin, Blue Beetle #15, Firestorm #31, Outsiders #45 & 46, Invincible #32, Noble Causes 12 - 18 & 25, Chance of a Lifetime, Wargod, Project Eon, Lonebow, Shocking Gun Tales.

FEATURED GUESTS

BRIAN WOOD

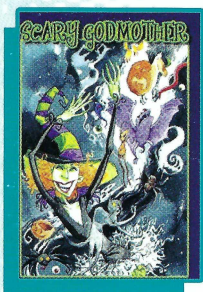

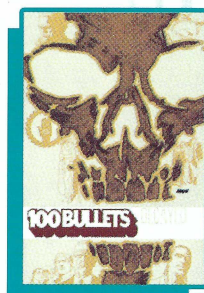

LOCAL, DMZ, NORTHLANDERS, AND DEMO

Brian Wood released his first series, Channel Zero, in 1997 to considerable critical acclaim and has continued to produce comics and graphic novels at a brisk pace ever since. Focusing almost entirely on creator-owned works, he's become one of the most important indie creators of the last decade. Standout works include his The Couriers and Channel Zero series, Demo, Local and Supermarket. He has earned multiple Eisner Award nominations and editions of his work have been published in close to a dozen foreign markets. Currently under an exclusive contract for DC/Vertigo, Wood continues to write his unique brand of iconoclastic creator-owned work with DMZ, Northlanders and The New York Four."

BRIAN AZZARELLO

100 BULLETS, LOVELESS

Brian Azzarello came to prominence with 100 Bullets, published by DC Comics' mature-audience imprint Vertigo. He and Argentine artist Eduardo Risso, with whom Azzarello first worked on Jonny Double, won the 2001 Eisner Award for "Best Serialized Story" for 100 Bullets #15-18: "Hang Up on the Hang Low". Azzarello has written for Batman ("Broken City", art by Risso; "Batman/Deathblow: After the Fire", art by Lee Bermejo, Tim Bradstreet, & Mick Gray) and Superman: "For Tomorrow", art by Jim Lee). In 2005, Azzarello began a new creator-owned series, the western Loveless, with artist Marcelo Frusin. He is also currently writing Wildstorm/DC's Deathblow.

JILL THOMPSON

SCARY GODMOTHER, DEATH

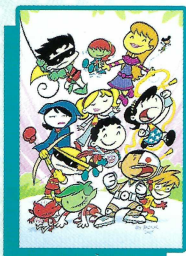

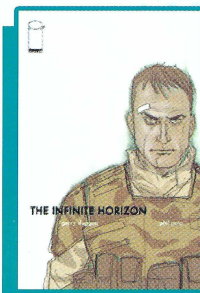

Jill Thompson is the most well-known, female comicbook artist in the industry. Graduating in 1987 from the American Academy of Art in Chicago, she's been working non-stop ever since, rising to the top of the male-dominated field. She has garnered accolades for her work on WONDER WOMAN, SWAMP THING, BLACK ORCHID, the DEATH manga, and the award winning title SANDMAN with Neil Gaiman.

In 1997, Jill's first children's book, THE SCARY GODMOTHER was released to critical acclaim. Subsequent books in the series include Scary Godmother-The Revenge of Jimmy, Scary Godmother-The Mystery Date and Scary Godmother-The BooFlu. Further comics are published by Sirius Entertainment, as well as two fantastic animated features produced by Mainframe Entertainment. Jill travels the US and beyond meeting fans and speaking about comics, literacy and art.

PHIL NOTO

THE INFINITE HORIZON, JONAH HEX

Phil Noto is a comic artist and illustrator. After a 10 year career at Disney Feature Animation, where his credits included Lion King, Pocahontas, Mulan and Lilo and Stitch, he began working full-time in comics. He has been the artist on books such as Birds of Prey, Danger Girl, Beautiful Killer, Jonah Hex and is now working on a Superman/Supergirl mini-series for DC Comics. He currently resides in Orlando with his wife, Beth and daughter, Kate.

ART BALTAZAR

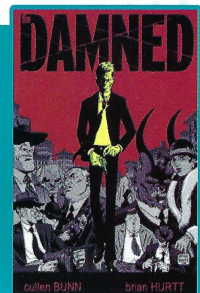

TINY TITANS, PATRICK THE WOLF BOY

Art is a super-cartoonist machine from Chicago. Art started his funky super-secret art studio in 1994 with the his self-published comic book ... "The Cray-Baby Adventures". Since then, he created "Patrick the Wolf Boy", amongst others. Art's next project is DC Comics' Tiny Titans! An all ages comic based on the DC characters we all know and love. Art's sharing writing duties with Franco, long time comic friend and partner in crime, and will be using his awesome drawing talents to make the Teen Titans better than ever!

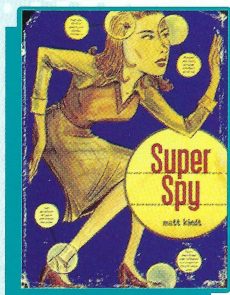

BRIAN HURTT

THE DAMNED

Brian Hurtt first made his mark with Oni Press working on the Greg Rucka's Queen & Country series. This was followed by other Oni projects such as Skinwalker, Three Strikes and Queen & Country: Declassified. In 2004 Brian made his DC Comics debut with Steve Gerber's critically acclaimed Hard Time series. Since then he has gone on to co-create the supernatural gangster comic The Damned which has been optioned by Dreamworks. A sequel to the The Damned comic is due to hit stores in March.

MATT KINDT SUPER SPY

Matt Kindt is the Harvey Award winning writer and artist of the graphic novels Super Spy and 2 Sisters and the co-creator of the Pistolwhip series. He has been nominated for 4 Eisner and 3 Harvey Awards. He lives and works from his home in St. Louis and is currently working on a historical ghost story.

MARC WOLFE COMIC AND FINE ART

Marc Wolfe is best known for his art produced for various Lucasfilm & Star Wars Licensee's. He has also produced work for Platinum Studios and Wildstorm. His realistic paintings focusing on the Entertainment, Pin-Up and Sci-Fi genre as well as his Comic work has made a convention favorite. Check him out on the web at www.MarcWolfeArt.com.

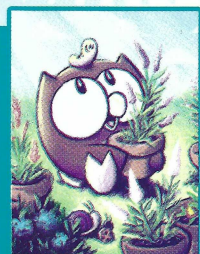

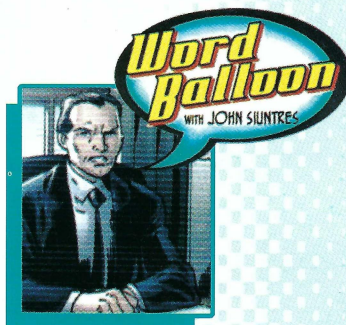

DAVE NESTLER PIN-UP ARTIST

In the world of Pinup art, it is rare that an artist is able to push the edge to create something so unique that it is without comparison and ripe for imitation. Most pinup artists fall into one of the two underlying schools or styles: Either hardcore in your face images most notably exemplified through the latest works of Sorayama, or the traditional lightly teasing, cheesecake style most commonly seen in Alberto Vargas' and Olivia's works. Dave Nestler has tread the waters between the two shores, creating his notorious Glamour-otica series: "Blonde and Gagged", a combination of Glamour, Pinup, and Erotic art.

JOHN SIUNTRES WORD BALLOON

For the last 16 years, John has been part of the Chicago Broadcasting scene, producing and hosting local and network radio and television shows for CBS, FOX SPORTS, THE SPORTING NEWS, and ESPN.

In 1999, he was nominated for an Emmy for "outstanding on-air performance" on the CBS Chicago TV show "OVERTIME, With Mike North". In 2002 His radio documentary "DEMPSEY VS TUNNEY, The Long Count Revisited" gained critical praise and national media attention. In June of 2005, John created the Word Balloon Podcast, featuring one on one interviews with comic book creators, novelists, screenwriters, actors, and directors. The program has featured such diverse guests as Brian Michael Bendis, Jeph Loeb, Thomas Jane, Neal Adams,

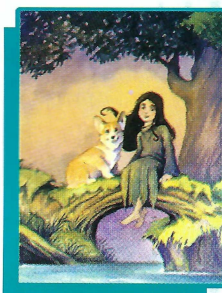

ANDY RUNTON OWLY

Andy Runton is the creator of the breakout all-ages series of graphic novels, Owly, which features a kind little vegetarian owl who's always searching for new friends and adventure. Relying on a mixture of symbols, icons, and expressions to tell his silent stories, Runton's work showcases both his gift for characterization and his love of wildlife and the outdoors. His animated and heartwarming style has made him a favorite of both fans and critics alike. The Owly series has earned him multiple awards including the Howard E. Day Memorial Prize, the Harvey Award, two Ignatz Awards, and the 2006 Eisner Award for "Best Publication for a Younger Audience". He currently resides in the greater-Atlanta area, where he's working full-time on the next Owly graphic novel.

CHRISTIAN SLADE CREATOR / WRITER / ARTIST OF KORGI

Christian Slade loves everything about being an artist in today's multimedia world. His passion and talents have allowed him to work with many clients including Random House, Henry Holt, Walt Disney Feature Animation, Sony Pictures, and Bronx Zoo. He received a B.F.A. from the University Of Central Florida, and a M.A. From Syracuse University. In 2007, Christian embarked on his first all-ages series of graphic novels titled Korgi, which is published by Top Shelf Productions. Korgi is unique because the book is wordless, using only highly-detailed drawings to tell the story.
